Re: MUR 6054
Donald M. Caldwell
1099 L.C. d/b/a Venice Nissan

Dear Mr. DeLacy:

On June 29, 2010, the Federal Election Commission found that there is probable cause to believe your clients, Donald M. Caldwell and 1099 L.C. d/b/a Venice Nissan, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f, and that 1099 L.C. d/b/a Venice Nissan violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a), provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, in connection with excessive contributions made in the name of others.

The Commission has a duty to attempt to correct such violations for a period of at least 30 days and no more than 90 days by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion, and by entering into a conciliation agreement with a respondent. If we are unable to reach an agreement after 30 days, the Commission may institute a civil suit in United States District Court and seek payment of a civil penalty.

Enclosed is a conciliation agreement that the Commission has approved in settlement of this matter.

Christopher DeLacy, Esq.
